

Jean Pousson

Jean Pousson has an international client base with specific interest in the banking and financial services sector. He was previously Director of Studies at the TSB Group Management College, where he developed his capability as a course leader and group facilitator, supporting the Bank's senior leadership to develop their strategic thinking, governance and financial capabilities.

Jean spent two years in the City of London with DC Gardner & Company as Assistant Director, Corporate Banking. His banking career at Barclays Bank spanned 15 years and within the last five years he occupied various management positions within Retail and Corporate Banking. For the last 22 years, Jean has lectured and consulted to an international client base consisting of SMEs, multinationals, charities, housing associations, professional firms and public sector bodies.

As a tutor, Jean's style is energetic and dynamic, engaging the whole team by making finance an approachable and comprehensible topic.
