

the idm group

Robert Willock

Robert Willock, currently HR Director at Dairy Crest Ltd, has almost 20 years experience in Human Resources, having worked in a number of industry sectors including logistics, shipping and manufacturing FMCG. A history graduate, Robert also has a Masters degree with Distinction in Human Resource Management and Industrial Relations.

A fellow of the Institute of Personnel and Development, Robert is a trained coach providing services up to Director level. In the three HR Director roles he has undertaken, Robert has advised on and driven major organisational change, structural and cultural.

Robert's aim is to make Human Resources Strategy a workable process, supporting the aims of the business and delivering real value

